ORDER

After the United States moved for pretrial detention, a hearing was held in this matter pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The defendant was present personally and with his appointed counsel Ian Lewis, Assistant Federal Public Defender. The United States was represented by Jim Kelleher, Assistant United States Attorney.

The Grand Jury has found probable cause to believe that the offense charged was committed by this defendant. Based on the evidence presented at the hearing, there are no conditions that the Court can impose that would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at all schedule hearings and the safety of other persons or the community.

The factors to be considered by the Court in determining whether the defendant should be detained pending trial are enumerated in section 3142(g). Regarding the potential for failure to appear, the defendant has a lack of legitimate employment, history of using an alias, and active felony warrants in Memphis, Tennessee.

Regarding potential danger to the community, the Court notes the nature of the instant offense and defendant's criminal history which includes several prior arrests for violations while on community supervision, prior conviction for a sex offense, prior conviction of a charge involving a child, and failure to register as a sex offender despite living in Missouri for two years.

Based on all the foregoing, the Court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is a risk of flight, and finds by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant is a danger to the community.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the defendant be, and is hereby detained without bail.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States, or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
